Admissions and Occupancy Policy Housing Authority of the City of FRISCO, TEXAS

I. PURPOSE

This Policy is established in order that the Housing Authority of Frisco, Texas will meet its responsibilities pursuant to the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended, Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and all other civil rights requirements, regulations promulgated by the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), the Annual Contributions Contract between the Housing Authority and HUD, and State and local laws, with respect to admission and occupancy of the Low Rent Public Housing Program.

This Policy governs admission and occupancy of Public Housing administered by the Housing Authority of Frisco, Texas hereafter called the PHA. It is the intent of the PHA to ensure decent, safe and sanitary housing for families of limited income in all Public Housing units owned or operated by the PHA under the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended. It is the intent of the PHA to provide a suitable living environment which fosters economic and social diversity and upward mobility. The PHA will periodically review this Policy to assure compliance with housing legislation and civil rights requirements.

II. COMPLIANCE WITH CIVIL RIGHTS LAWS

A. Complying with Civil Rights Laws

1. Civil rights laws protect the rights of applicants and residents to equal treatment by the PHA in operating its programs. It is the policy of the PHA to comply with all Civil Rights laws now in effect and subsequently enacted, including but not limited to:
 - a. Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, which forbids discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin or sex; 24 CFR 1 and 100

- b. Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 (as amended by the 1974 HCDA and the Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988), which extends protection against discrimination based on disability and familial status, and spell out forms of prohibited discrimination; 24 CFR 100
 - c. Executive Order 11063,
 - d. Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, which describes specific housing rights of persons with disabilities; 24 CFR 8
 - e. Age Discrimination Act of 1975, which establishes certain rights of the elderly; 24 CFR 146
 - f. Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, otherwise Section 504 and the Fair Housing Amendments govern (Title II deals with common areas and public space, not living units.)
 - g. Any applicable State laws or local ordinances.
2. PHA shall not discriminate because of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, familial status, or disability in the leasing, rental, occupancy, use, or other disposition of housing or related facilities, including land that is part of a development under the PHA's jurisdiction covered by a public housing Annual Contributions Contract with HUD. 24 CFR 100
 3. PHA shall not deny admission to otherwise qualified applicants because of their membership in some group to which negative behavior may be imputed (e.g., families with children born to unmarried parents or families whose head or spouse is a student). Instead, each applicant who is a member of a particular group will be treated as an individual based on his or her attributes and behavior. 24 CFR 960.203(a)
 4. PHA will offer units only in the order prescribed by this policy, since any other method violates the rights of applicants.

B. Reasonable Accommodations

1. PHA, as a public agency that provides low rent housing to eligible families, has a legal obligation to provide "reasonable accommodations" to applicants and residents if they or any family members have a disability. 24 CFR 8.4

2. A reasonable accommodation is some modification or change PHA can make to its apartments, buildings, or methods and procedures that will assist an otherwise eligible applicant with a disability to take full advantage of and use PHA's programs, including those that are operated by other agencies in PHA-owned public space. 24 CFR 8.20
3. An accommodation is not reasonable if it: 24 CFR 8.21(b) and 24 CFR 8.24(a)(2)
 - a. Causes an undue financial and administrative burden; or
 - b. Represents a fundamental alteration in the nature of PHA's program.
4. Subject to the undue burdens and fundamental alterations tests, PHA will correct physical situations or procedures that create a barrier to equal housing opportunity for all. To permit people with disabilities to take full advantage of the PHA's housing program and non-housing programs, in accordance with Section 504 and the Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988, PHA shall comply with all requirements and prohibitions in applicable law.
5. Facilities and programs used by applicants and residents shall be accessible to persons in wheelchairs, persons with sensory impairments and other persons with disabilities. Application and management offices, hearing rooms, community centers, day care centers, laundry facilities, craft and game rooms, etc. (to the extent that the PHA has such facilities) will be usable by residents with a full range of disabilities. If PHA offers such facilities, and none is accessible, some will be made so, subject to the undue financial and administrative burden test. 24 CFR 8.2
6. Documents and procedures used by applicants and residents will be accessible for those with vision, hearing or other sensory impairments. Also, all documents will be written simply and clearly to enable applicants with learning or cognitive disabilities to understand as much as possible.
7. Examples of reasonable accommodations include, but are not limited to: 24 CFR 8.4
 - a. Making alterations to a PHA apartment to make it fully accessible so it could be used by a person in a wheelchair;
 - b. Transferring a resident who needs a fully accessible unit from an apartment that cannot be made accessible to an apartment that is accessible;

- c. Widening the door of a community room or public restroom so a person in a wheelchair may use the facility;
- d. Adding or altering apartment or building features so they may be used by a family member with a disability, including but not limited to:
 - 1) Installing strobe-type flashing light smoke detectors and flashing light/doorbell for a family with a hearing impaired member;
 - 2) Adding structural grab bars in the bathroom;
 - 3) Changing the doorknobs to lever-type door handles;
 - 4) Installing a magnifier over the thermostat;
 - 5) Switching the bathtub to a shower;
 - 6) Lowering the peephole on the door;
- e. Permitting a family to have a large dog to assist a family member with a disability in a PHA family development where the size of dogs is usually limited; 24 CFR 8.20
- f. Making sure that PHA processes are understandable to applicants and residents with sensory or cognitive impairments, including but not limited to: 24 CFR 8.6
 - 1) Permitting an applicant or resident to be accompanied or represented by a family member, friend or advocate at all meetings and interviews with PHA if the individual desires such representation.
 - 2) Permitting an outside agency or individual to assist an applicant with a disability to meet the PHA's applicant screening criteria.
- g. To meet the standard of HUD's definition of "Qualified Individual with a Disability" a family head or other member with a disability must still be able to meet essential obligations of tenancy. They must be able 24 CFR 8.3

- 1) to pay rent and other charges (e.g. utility bills) as required by the Lease in a timely manner;
 - 2) to care for and avoid damaging the apartment and common areas; to use facilities and equipment in a reasonable way;
 - 3) to create no health, or safety hazards, and to report maintenance needs
 - 4) not to interfere with the rights and peaceful enjoyment of others, and to avoid damaging the property of others;
 - 5) not to engage in prohibited criminal activity that threatens the health, safety or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents or staff; and not to engage in drug-related criminal activity; and
 - 6) to comply with necessary and reasonable rules and program requirements of HUD and the PHA.
 - 7) But there is no requirement that they be able to do these things without assistance.
- h. If an applicant or resident family member needs assistance with one of the essential obligations of tenancy, PHA will, as a reasonable accommodation, make a referral to an individual or agency that can provide such assistance. 24 CFR 8.20
- i. If an applicant or resident receives a referral to an agency or individual who can assist the applicant or resident with complying with the essential obligations of tenancy, the applicant or resident is not obligated to accept the service, but if refusing service results in a Lease violation, PHA may terminate the Lease. 24 CFR 8.2
- j. An applicant or resident family with a member who has a disability and needs or wants a reasonable accommodation may request it at any time. 24 CFR 8.20
- k. If an applicant or resident would prefer not to discuss his/her disability with the PHA, that is his/her right.

C. Limited English Proficiency

1. Applicants and residents with low English comprehension may furnish an interpreter to assist in communication with PHA. When an applicant or resident needs interpretation services and a staff member of the PHA speaks the language needed, the staff member will provide translation services.

III. AFFIRMATIVE MARKETING

- A. It is the policy of the PHA to conduct outreach as needed to maintain an adequate application pool representative of the eligible population in the area. All marketing efforts will include outreach to those least likely to apply. [24 CFR 960.103(b)] Outreach efforts will take into consideration:
1. The number of vacant units
 2. Availability of units through turnover
 3. Waiting List Characteristics
- B. The PHA will periodically assess the factors in order to determine the need for and scope of any marketing efforts.
- C. All marketing and informational materials will:
1. Comply with the Fair Housing Act requirements with respect to the Equal Housing Opportunity logo and use of nondiscriminatory language [24 CFR 109.30 (a)];
 2. Describe the housing units, application process, Waiting List, priority system and eligibility accurately;
 3. Will be in plain language and will use more than strictly English language print media;

 5. Will make clear who is eligible: low income individuals and families; working and non-working people; as well as the elderly and disabled.
 6. Will make clear that it is the PHA's responsibility to provide reasonable accommodations to people with disabilities.

VI. APPLICATIONS FOR ADMISSION

A. General Conditions

- 1. Under no circumstances will anyone be denied the right to request or submit an application for housing, unless the PHA has publicly announced the temporary closing of all or part of the Waiting List (see Section IX)

2. Applications will be accepted on our website when the waiting list is open for applications at the Frisco Housing Authority website www.friscoha.org. Information regarding any opening or closing of the waiting list will be posted in advance on the website. A completed online application form by Head, Co-Head or Spouse of the applicant family, will be obtained from all households seeking admission to housing.
3. No applications will be accepted by mail or in the office, unless special arrangements are requested and approved by the PHA, based on a person's disability or other extenuating circumstance that would prevent him/her from completing an application online. Any application received as a result of extenuating circumstances during the open application period must be received within 5 days after the waiting list is closed.
4. A complete application package at a minimum will consist of:
 - a. Application Form
 - b. Authorization for Release of Information/Privacy Act Notice
 - c. Citizenship Declaration Form/Certification of Non-eligible Immigrant Status (if applicable)
 - d. Criminal History Check Acknowledgment Form
 - e. Waiting List Policy Statement
 - f. Applicable Verification Forms
 - g. Community Service Policy/Exempt Forms
 - h. HUD-50066 Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence or Stalking (if applicable)
5. The PHA will work on the assumption that the facts certified to by the applicant in the online application are correct, although all those facts will be subject to verification later in the application process. It is important that enough information is obtained to make a preliminary determination of eligibility.
6. Every applicant who submits an online application form (A Pre-Application) will immediately be placed on the Waiting List or in the lottery, regardless of whether or not all other application documents have been submitted and regardless of whether or not the applicant initially appears eligible.

A Lottery system will be used to rank all Pre-Applications. A limited number (number will be determined by PHA) of applications will be randomly selected to be on the waiting list. Those applications will then be placed on the Waiting List. Existing applicants should not reapply.

B. Preliminary Determination of Eligibility

1. Within approximately 90 days following the closing for taking applications, a preliminary review of the applicant's file will take place to check for apparent eligibility or ineligibility based on the statements made on the application and further information received.
2. A review of HUD internal records will be made to determine if an applicant has participated in any of the programs administered by this PHA or any other Housing Authority and left the program owing unpaid rent, damages, vacancy loss, or other charges. Such an applicant will not be determined eligible until all funds are repaid in full.
3. Applicant Determined Preliminarily Ineligible:
 - a. An applicant who is determined to be ineligible because of information on the application (e.g., over income) or a record of a prior eviction from public housing or debts owing, will be notified in writing of the ineligibility. Notice will:
 - 1) specify reasons why ineligible
 - 2) inform applicant that he or she has ten (10) days after receipt of this notice to request a hearing (see Section XII) in writing.
 - 3) if the only reason for denial is money owed to the PHA or another housing agency, inform applicant that he or she has fourteen (14) days to repay the debt or be removed from the waiting list.
 - b. Applicant is removed from Waiting List.
 - c. Once the decision to deny is made, the application will be filed and kept for three (3) years.
4. Applicant Determined Eligible:

Eligible applicants will be notified in writing or by telephone, of the following:

 - a. that they have been placed on the Waiting List according to the date and time of their application.

- b. an approximate date applicant is to be housed, determined to the best of the PHA's ability.
- c. that it is their responsibility to submit the rest of their documents, if applicable, within the next six (6) months, as well as report any change in income priority status.
- d. that they will receive notification from the PHA when their name is close to the top of the Waiting List and final verifications are to be processed
- e. that, if they do not hear from the PHA by the end of the six (6) month period, it is their responsibility to contact the PHA to update their information and express interest in remaining on the Waiting List. Otherwise, they will be dropped from the List unless they have, at initial application, requested assistance with communication as a reasonable accommodation of their disability. Such assistance in updating the Waiting List could include the PHA contacting the applicant with a disability or a designated friend, relative or representative, rather than requiring the applicant to contact the PHA.

C. Time Table for Final Verifications

- 1. Final verification of all application information submitted by the family will be conducted no earlier than sixty (60) days prior to the estimated time the applicant will be offered a unit.
- 2. If there is no one on the Waiting List, verifications and screening will begin immediately after all completed application paperwork has been submitted by the family.

VII. ADMISSION PRIORITIES AND SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

A. Deconcentration and Income Targeting

In its assignment of units, the PHA will, to the maximum extent possible, avoid concentration of the most economically and socially deprived families in any one or all of its developments, in an attempt to achieve a broad range of incomes.

1. Applicants will be grouped according to the following priorities based on income ranges:
 - a. Priority 1: Families with incomes between 0% and 30% of the area median income
 - b. Priority 2: Families with incomes between 31% and 80% of the area median income (target is 60% of admissions)
2. When possible, as required by the Quality Housing Responsibility Act of 1998, at least 40 percent of the families admitted during the fiscal year must be admitted from Priority 1. In order to ensure that at any given time the PHA has not fallen below the required 40%, the following test will be performed prior to each new admission:
 - a. Determine total number of admissions since start of the fiscal year
 - b. Add one to this total (the applicant about to be housed)
 - c. Determine number of families housed to-date with incomes at or below 30% of median
 - d. Divide c by d
 - 1) If the result is .40 or greater, next admission may have an income greater than 30%
 - 2) If the result is less than .40, the next admission must have an income at or below 30% of median.

3. In order to prevent or correct concentrations of the lowest income families in any one project or portion of project, the PHA may skip over a Priority 1 family on the Waiting List in order to house a Priority 2 family with higher income.

NOTE: A PHA may reduce the 40 percent target for public housing by exceeding the 75 percent minimum targeting requirement for admission of extremely low-income families in the PHA's Section 8 voucher program, not to exceed the lowest of the following: ten percent of the public housing waiting list admissions; ten percent of the Section 8 waiting list admissions; the number of low-income families (other than extremely low-income families) that Lease public housing units in high-poverty census tracts, defined as those with a poverty rate greater than 30 percent.

- B. When selecting a family for a unit in housing designated for elderly families, the PHA will give a priority to elderly and near elderly; in housing designated for disabled families only disabled families will be admitted.
- C. When selecting a family for a unit with accessible features, the PHA will give priority to families that include disabled persons who can benefit from the unit's features.
- D. If no family needing accessible features can be found for a unit with accessible features, the PHA will house a family not needing the features, subject to the procedures described in the Tenant Selection and Assignment plan, described in Section XIII Under this Policy. A non-disabled family in an accessible unit will be required to move so that a family needing the unit features can take advantage of the unit.
- E. Over-Income Families (for PHAs under 250 units). If there are vacant Units and there is no one on the waiting list
 1. The PHA will advertise the availability of the unit for thirty (30) days in the local newspaper
 2. A family wanting to Lease the unit may do so on a month to month basis until an eligible family applies.
 3. If an over-income family becomes available to fill the unit before the advertising period is up, the PHA will move the family into the unit immediately.
 4. A market rate rent will be charged for the unit.

5. When an eligible family becomes available, the over-income family will be given thirty (30) days notice to vacate
- F. If determined necessary to increase security within a project, the PHA may rent a unit to a police officer who is not otherwise eligible.
1. Rent and terms of the Lease will be negotiated between the PHA and the officer.
 2. Officer must be employed full-time as a professional officer licensed by a federal, state or local government agency.

VIII. OCCUPANCY STANDARDS

- A. It is the PHA's policy that units should be occupied by families of the appropriate size. This policy maintains the usefulness of the units while preserving them from excessive wear and tear.
- B. The following minimum and maximum number of persons per unit guide will govern the number of bedrooms required to accommodate a family of a given size and composition:

Occupancy Guidelines

- C. Under the minimum-number-of-persons-per-unit standard, generally two people will share a bedroom, except that units will be so assigned that:
1. It will not be necessary for persons of different generations or opposite sex, other than husband and wife, to occupy the same bedroom except at the request of the family.
 2. Exceptions to these standards may be made in the case of reasonable accommodations for a person with disabilities.
 3. An unborn child will not be counted as a person in determining unit size. A single pregnant woman may be assigned to a one bedroom unit.

4. In determining unit size, the PHA will consider a child who is temporarily away from home because of placement in foster care, kinship care or away at school (court documents required).
 5. Two children of the opposite sex will not be required to share a bedroom except at the request of the family. Two children of the same sex are expected to share a bedroom, regardless of their ages.
 6. The living room or dining room will not be considered as a bedroom when determining the minimum size unit for which a family qualifies.
 7. A single head of household parent will not be required (but may choose) to share a bedroom with his/her child.
 8. A live-in attendant for an occupant may be assigned a bedroom for reasons of medical and/or health problems, if verified.
 9. For verified reasons of medical or health problems, a separate bedroom may be provided for an individual family member.
 10. A single person who is not elderly, disabled, displaced or the remaining member of a resident family, may not be placed in a larger than one bedroom unit and may be required to move to a smaller unit.
- D. At the discretion of the PHA, families may be permitted to exceed the maximum as shown on the chart when the family requests such occupancy, and when the PHA determines that the unit in question is large enough.
- E. In any case, no larger unit will be held vacant due to lack of appropriate-sized family on the Waiting List, if it is not financially feasible to do so.
- F. In assigning unit sizes, the PHA will take into account the length of time the family would have to wait for smaller versus larger units, and the age, relationship and sex of family members.

IX. THE WAITING LIST

- A. General Management
1. It is the policy of the PHA to administer its Waiting List as required by the regulations at 24 CFR 960.
 2. The PHA, at its discretion, may restrict application intake, suspend application intake, and close Waiting Lists in whole or in part. The PHA may open or close the list by unit size or type available.

3. Subject to our waiting list policy, applicants have the responsibility to notify the PHA when information regarding the application has changed, such as mailing address or phone numbers.
4. The waiting list will be purged once each year. All applicants will be notified by mail to determine if there is still interest in being on the waiting list. Applicants who fail to respond to notification letter will be removed from the waiting list.
5. The Waiting List will reflect for each application the results of the PHA lottery process. The Lottery will select a random group of applicants from the applicants received during the time the list was open and then places the applicant on the correct list in random order. Then applicants will be ranked according to the Preference Policy.

B. Closing the Waiting List

1. Decisions about closing the Waiting List will be based on
 - a. the number of applications available for a particular size and type of unit,
 - b. the ability of the PHA to house an applicant in an appropriate unit within a reasonable period of time
2. Decisions to close the Waiting List restrict intake or open the Waiting List will be publicly announced.
3. During the period when the Waiting List is closed, the PHA will not maintain a list of individuals who wish to be notified when the waiting list is re-opened
4. When the waiting list is closed or re-opened, a sign will be placed in the lobby (office, window) and an advertisement will be placed in the newspaper. The sign and ad will indicate which parts of the Waiting List are affected (program, type and bedroom size).

C. Removal of Applications from Waiting List

1. The PHA will remove an applicant's name from the Waiting List under the following circumstances:

- a. The applicant requests that the name be removed.
 - b. The applicant has failed to advise the PHA of his/her continued interest in being on the Waiting List (subject to reasonable accommodation for persons with disabilities--see Section VI B4 e). The applicant fails to advise the PHA of any changes in family status, priority status, or in physical or mailing address.
 - c. The PHA has made reasonable efforts to contact the applicant to schedule interviews or obtain information necessary to complete the application process and the applicant has failed to respond. In this case, the PHA will notify the applicant in writing or by telephone that he/she has ten (10) days within which to reschedule the interview or provide the needed information. If applicant fails to respond within that period, the application will be withdrawn.
 - d. The applicant has failed to pay an outstanding balance owed to the PHA.
 - e. The PHA has notified the applicant of its intention to remove the applicant's name because the applicant was determined ineligible based on preliminary information on the application or pursuant to the verification process. In this case, the applicant may request an Informal Hearing for Denials (see Section XII). He/she must respond in writing within ten (10) days of receipt of the written notification.
2. The PHA will consider mitigating circumstances such as disabilities, health problems or lack of transportation in determining if the application should be withdrawn.
 3. Persons whose applications are withdrawn or who are denied may not reapply for twelve (12) months from the date of withdrawal or denial.

X. VERIFICATIONS

A. General Policies

1. As families approach the top of the Waiting List, no earlier than ninety (90) days prior to offer, the PHA will begin to verify the following items according to HUD's verification guidance provided by HUD in PIH Notice 2004-01 and any subsequent guidance issued by HUD.
 - a. Family Composition and type
 - b. Social Security Numbers of all Family Members.
 - c. Citizenship or eligible immigration status
 - d. Annual Income
 - e. Assets and Asset Income
 - f. Deductions from Income
 - g. Information used in Applicant Screening
2. Verification Procedures will be modified as needed to accommodate persons with disabilities.
3. The PHA will handle information obtained through the verification process in accordance with HUD's Records Management Guidance.
4. Applicants/residents will not be charged for any cost related to verification of information.
5. Consent Forms: Applicants must cooperate fully in obtaining or providing the necessary verifications.
 - a. All adult applicants must sign form HUD-9886, Authorization for Release of Information. The purpose of this form is to facilitate automated data collection and computer matching from specific sources. This form covers only release of information on earned income and unemployment income to the PHA and IRS/SSA information to HUD.

- b. Only HUD is authorized to collect information directly from IRS and Social Security Administration.
 - c. Adult family members will be asked to sign releases on other forms as needed to collect information to determine family's eligibility and level of assistance.
 - d. If any family member who is required to sign a consent form fails to do so, the PHA will deny admission to applicants and terminate assistance of existing residents. The family may request an informal hearing in accordance with Section VII.
6. The PHA is authorized by HUD to use five methods to verify family information, in the following order of priority
- a. Up-front Verification whenever available
 - b. Third-Party Written Verification
 - c. Third-Party Oral Verification
 - d. Review of Documents
7. When up-front verification is not available, the PHA will diligently seek third-party verifications using a combination of written and oral requests to verification sources. Information received orally from third parties may be used either to clarify information provided in writing by the third party or as independent verification when written third-party verification is not received in a timely manner. (24 CFR 960.259(c)(1))
8. The PHA will document the reasons when the PHA uses a lesser form of verification than third-party.
9. When Third-Party Verification is not required
- a. When legal documents are the primary source, such as birth certificates or other legal documentation of birth, third-party verification is not required.

- b. The PHA will use review of documents instead of third-party verification when the market value of an asset is less than $500 annually and the family has original documents that support the declared amount.
- c. When it is known that an income source does not have the ability to provide written or oral third-party verification, e. g., the source's privacy rules prohibit the source from disclosing information; the PHA will rely on viewing of documents.
- d. The PHA will determine that third-party verification is not available when there is a service charge for verifying an asset or expense and the family has original documents that provide the necessary information. If the family cannot provide the original documents, the PHA will pay the service charge required unless it is not cost effective. (Cost of postage and envelopes to obtain third-party verifications is NOT considered unreasonable cost.)

10. Verification Documents

- a. Any family-supplied documents used for verification must be originals, not photocopies, which are no more than sixty (60) days old.
- b. Documents must not be damaged, altered or illegible
- c. The PHA will accept a document dated up to six (6) months before the effective date of the family's re-examination if the document represents the most recent scheduled report from a source, e.g., if the holder of a pension annuity provides semi-annual reports, the PHA would accept the most recent report.
- d. Print-outs from Internet pages are considered original documents
- e. Staff members who view an original document must make a photocopy; annotate the copy with the name of the person who provided the document and the date the original was viewed. The staff member must then sign the copy.

11. All verification attempts, information obtained, and decisions reached during the verification process will be recorded in the family's file in sufficient detail to demonstrate that the PHA followed all of the PHA's policies and procedures for verification. The documentation should allow a staff member or HUD reviewer to understand the process followed and conclusions reached.

12. Age of Verifications

- a. Only verified information that is less than ninety (90) days old may be used for certification or re-certification.
- b. Verified information that is more than ninety (90) days old must be re-verified before the family is housed.
- c. Verified information not subject to change, such as birth dates need not be re-verified at reexamination.

13. All information provided to the PHA relating to incidents of domestic violence, including the fact that an individual is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, will be retained in confidence by the PHA and will be neither entered into any shared database nor provided to a related entity, except to the extent that the disclosure is (1) requested or consented by the individual in writing; (ii) required for use in an eviction proceeding or termination of assistance; or (iii) otherwise required by applicable law.

B. Social Security Numbers (24 CFR 5.210)

1. Families are required to provide a Social Security Number for all family members prior to admission.
2. If a Family member does not have the original Social Security card issued by the Social Security Administration, PHA will accept photo identification and verification of the number from the Social Security Office.

C. Citizenship Verification

Verification of citizenship or eligible immigration status will be carried out in accordance with the HUD's Guidance on Citizenship Documentation Verification.

1. In the case of a "Mixed Family" applicant, a member who is a non-citizen not claiming to have eligible status must sign, or must have another family member sign, a certification that they do not have eligible status.
2. If no family member is determined to be either a citizen or an eligible immigrant, the family will be denied assistance.

3. Restrictions on Denial, Delay or Termination of Assistance.

Assistance may not be denied or delayed (or in case of re-examinations, reduced or terminated) on the basis of immigration status if:

- b. the family member for whom required evidence has not been submitted has moved from the assisted unit (applicable to re-examinations)
- c. the family member who is determined not to be eligible following verification process has moved from the assisted unit (applicable to re-examinations)

- f. Assistance for a mixed family is continued in accordance with 24 CFR 5.516 and 5.518 (applicable to re-examinations)
- g. Deferral of termination of assistance is granted in accordance with 24 CFR 5.516 and 5.518 (applicable to re-examinations)
- h. Informal hearing process has not been completed (24 CFR 5.514)

4. Denial or Termination of Assistance.

Assistance shall be denied (or in the case of existing residents, terminated) if

- a. Evidence of citizenship and eligible immigration status is not submitted by the family within the required time frame or within any extension granted.
 - 1) Extensions may be granted, in writing, for no more than thirty (30) days

- 2) Denial of extensions will also be in writing, with reasons provided.
 - b. Evidence of citizenship and eligible immigration status was timely submitted but Dept. of Homeland Security verifications do not verify eligible immigration status and
 - 1) Family does not pursue Dept. of Homeland Security appeal or informal hearing rights, or
 - 2) Dept. of Homeland Security appeal and informal hearing rights are pursued but final decisions are against the family
 - c. PHA determines that a family member has knowingly permitted another ineligible individual to reside on a permanent basis in the assisted unit (without the PHA's knowledge and without the assistance having been prorated because of this individual) In such case, termination will be for at least twenty four (24) months.
5. Notice of Denial (or termination). Notice shall state:
- a. that assistance will be denied or terminated and give the reason
 - b. that family may be eligible for prorated assistance
 - c. in case of existing resident, the criteria and procedures for obtaining relief under the provisions for preservation of families.

6. Appeal to Dept. of Homeland Security
- a. After the PHA notifies family of the results of the Dept. of Homeland Security verification, the family has thirty (30) days to send to Dept. of Homeland Security for an appeal:

- 1) a cover letter indicating their request for an appeal of the verification results
 - 2) any additional documentation supporting the appeal and a copy of the verification request form used to process the secondary verification
- b. Family must provide the PHA with a copy of the written request and proof of mailing.
 - c. Within thirty (30) days of receipt of the request, Dept. of Homeland Security will render a decision or notify the family of the reasons for any delay.
 - d. Upon receipt of Dept. of Homeland Security decision, the PHA will notify the family of its right to request an informal hearing on the ineligibility determination.
7. Informal Hearing
- a. Family may request a hearing in lieu of a Dept. of Homeland Security appeal or following it.
 - b. Family must request the hearing within thirty (30) days of the notice of ineligibility determination based on immigration status by the PHA, if it does not wish to appeal to DHS; if it has appealed to Dept. of Homeland Security, then the family must request the hearing within thirty (30) days of the Dept. of Homeland Security appeal decision.
 - c. The hearing will be conducted according to the PHA's informal hearing procedure as outlined in Section XII.
 - d. The PHA will provide the family with a written final decision and the reasons for that decision, based solely on the facts presented at the hearing, within fourteen (14) days of the date of the informal hearing.
8. Retention of documents. The PHA will retain for a minimum of five (5) years all of the documents related to the Dept. of Homeland Security appeal or informal hearing process. (24 CFR 5.514)

XI. APPLICANT SUITABILITY SCREENING

- A. It is the PHA's policy that all applicants will be screened in accordance with HUD regulations (24 CFR 960) and the PHA's Screening Procedures. Otherwise eligible applicants will be screened and those who meet the screening criteria will be considered suitable for housing, as follows:
1. Past performance in meeting financial obligations, particularly rent, is satisfactory (where nonpayment or late payment of rent has occurred, PHA will take into account extenuating circumstances, such as family illness, loss of job, etc., that may have caused the delinquency).
 2. No record of disturbance of neighbors, destruction of property, or living or housekeeping habits which adversely affect the health, safety or welfare of other residents (this includes alcohol abuse where the abuse results in behavior which interferes with the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of premises by other residents)
 3. No history of criminal activity involving crimes of physical violence to persons or property; possession, sale or use of illegal substances; or any other criminal acts that adversely affect the health, safety or welfare of themselves or other residents
- B. Persons with Disabilities: The PHA may not compel any applicant to reveal information about the nature and extent of an applicant's disability as a routine part of the application process. However, the PHA may
1. Ask all applicants whether they need any special features in their units or any special processing (reasonable accommodation) because of a disability (to qualify for the special unit features or reasonable accommodation, the applicant must document that the family includes someone who needs the unit features or the reasonable accommodation)
 2. Ask all applicants whether the head or spouse is a person with a disability for the purposes of qualifying the family for
 - a. the $400 disabled family deduction from income

- C. The following persons will be denied admission
1. Persons who have been evicted from any federally-assisted housing because of drug-related criminal activity are ineligible for admission to public housing for a three (3) year period beginning on the date of such eviction. This may be waived by the PHA if
 - a. the person demonstrates successful completion of a rehabilitation program approved by the PHA
 - b. circumstances leading to the eviction no longer exist, e.g., the individual involved in the drug-related activity is no longer in the household because the person has died or is imprisoned.
 2. Persons engaging in illegal use of a drug will be denied admission if:
 - a. The PHA determines that any household member is currently engaging in illegal use of a drug; (a household member is "currently engaged in" the criminal activity if the person has engaged in the behavior recently enough to justify a reasonable belief that the behavior is current)
 - b. If the PHA determines that it has reasonable cause to believe that a household member's illegal use or pattern of illegal use of a drug may threaten the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents.
 3. Persons convicted of drug-related criminal activity for manufacture or production of methamphetamines on the premises of federally assisted housing is permanently prohibited from admission.

- D. Methods of screening: PHA will screen applicants according to the following screening procedures:
1. Complete a rental history check on all applicants.
 2. Complete a criminal background check and sex offender check on all applicants 18 years of age or older. Criminal check will be conducted according to the HUD's Criminal Screening Guidance.
 3. Conduct personal interviews
- E. In the event of receipt of any unfavorable information regarding conduct of the applicant or a household member of an applicant family, the PHA will give consideration to the time, nature and extent of applicant's conduct and to factors that might indicate a reasonable probability of favorable future conduct or financial prospects in determining eligibility of the applicant. Factors to be considered will include:
1. Evidence of rehabilitation;
 2. Evidence of applicant family's participation or willingness to participate in social service or other appropriate counseling service programs and the availability of such program;
 3. Evidence of the applicant's willingness to attempt to increase family income and the availability of training or employment programs in the locality.
 4. Willingness to exclude a family member who falls into one of the categories in "C" above.
 5. Evidence that criminal activity relates to a domestic violence situation.
- F. The PHA may, where a statute requires that the PHA prohibit admission for a prescribed period of time after some disqualifying behavior or event, choose to continue that prohibition for a longer period of time.
- G. Misrepresentations: If misrepresentations on the Application for Admission are determined before the family is housed, the family will be denied housing. If misrepresentations result in housing an ineligible or unsuitable family, the family may be required to vacate even though currently eligible. If misrepresentation or failure to provide facts has resulted in payment of a lower Total Tenant Payment than should have been paid, the family will be required to pay the difference between the Total Tenant Payment paid and the amount which should have been paid. In justifiable cases, the PHA may take such other action as deemed reasonable.

XII. INFORMAL HEARING FOR DENIALS

- A. All applicants who are denied by the PHA will receive a letter that informs them of their right to request in writing, within ten (10) days of receipt of the denial letter, a hearing with the Executive Director or his/her designee.
- B. A hearing may be requested as a result of denial based on preliminary application information or on results of the final verification and screening process.
- C. Upon receipt of the applicant's written request, the PHA and applicant will agree on a time for an informal hearing, which should occur within the 30-day period following the denial date.
- D. During the hearing, the applicant will be afforded an opportunity to present evidence rebutting the grounds for denial.
- E. The hearing will conform to the following procedures:
 - 1. If the decision to deny admission is based on allegations by a third party, the PHA will attempt to have the third party present.
 - 2. The PHA staff person who made the decision must be present to provide available facts and to be questioned.
 - 3. The decision must be based solely on evidence presented at the hearing.
 - 4. The applicant has a right to inspect his/her file.
- F. If, as a result of information presented by the applicant at the Informal Hearing, the PHA reverses its decision to deny the applicant, no new application is required and the applicant will be returned to the appropriate spot on the Waiting List.
- G. If the applicant does not request a hearing within the designated period, he/she waives his/her right to a hearing.

XIII. TENANT SELECTION AND ASSIGNMENT

A. Policy

It is the PHA's policy that each applicant will be assigned his/her appropriate place on one Community-Wide Waiting List in sequence based upon date and time the application is received, type and size of unit needed. Exceptions will be permitted only to comply with Court Orders, Settlement Agreements, or when approved in advance by Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity.

B. Method of Applicant Selection

1. The PHA will first match the characteristics of the applicant to the unit available, including size, type and special features of the unit (e.g., accessible) and any priorities for admission required for designated or mixed population housing.
2. Further, in the selection of a family for a unit with accessible features the PHA will give priority to families that include a person with disabilities who can benefit from the unit features. (24 CFR 8.27)

C. Assignment Plan

1. The selection and assignment of applicants to suitable housing will assure equal opportunity and nondiscrimination on grounds of race, color, sex, religion, age, familial status, national origin, or disability.
2. Each qualified applicant first in sequence on the Waiting List will be made one offer of a unit of appropriate size. If more than one unit of the appropriate size is available, the first unit offered will be the one that will be ready for occupancy first.
3. The applicant has three (3) working days from the date the offer is made (by phone, registered mail or the method of communication designated by the applicant) to accept the offer.
4. If the applicant does not accept the offer, he/she will be removed from the Waiting List.
5. If an applicant is willing to accept the unit offered but is unable to move at the time of the offer and presents to the satisfaction of the PHA, clear evidence (“good cause”) that acceptance of the offer of a suitable vacancy will result in undue hardship or handicap not related to considerations of race, color, sex, religion, or national origin, the applicant will not be dropped from the Waiting List.

6. Examples of good cause reasons for refusal of an offer include, but are not limited to:
 - d. a health professional verifies temporary hospitalization or recovery from an illness or need for a live-in aide to care for the principal household member
 - e. unit is inappropriate for applicant's disabilities, or the family does not need the accessible features offered by the unit; does not want to be subject to a 30-day notice to move.

D. Dwelling Units with Accessible/Adaptable Features

1. Before offering a vacant accessible unit to a non-disabled applicant, the PHA will offer such units:
 - a. First, to a current occupant of another unit of the same development, or other public housing development under the PHA’s control, having a disability that requires special features of the vacant unit (transfer)
 - b. Second, to an eligible applicant on the Waiting List having a disability that requires the special features
 - c. Request for an accessible/adaptable unit must be made in writing.
2. When offering an accessible/adaptable unit to a non-disabled applicant, the PHA will require the applicant to sign an agreement to move to an available non-accessible unit within thirty (30) days when either a current resident or an applicant needs the features of the unit. This requirement will be reflected in the Lease agreement signed with the applicant.

E. Initial intake, Waiting List management, screening and offers of housing will be made from the PHA office. The PHA will maintain a record of units offered, including location, date and circumstances of each offer, and each acceptance or rejection, including the reason for the rejection.

F. Transfers request must be in writing and will be permitted according to the PHA’s transfer policy described in Section XIV.

XIV. TRANSFERS

- A. All transfer requests must be made in writing. The PHA will maintain a list of families (by number of bedrooms) that need to be transferred.
- B. The family name shall be placed on this list on the day the PHA becomes aware of family composition change or other circumstances requiring a change.
- C. Families that are under housed will be given priority over families that are over housed.
- D. Families needing special consideration because of a disability will be accommodated before under and over housed families, whenever possible.
- E. Highest priority: Emergency and certain administrative transfers will take priority over new admissions, as follows:
 - 1. Condition of the unit poses an immediate threat to the resident's life, health or safety, as determined by the PHA. Examples are:
 - a. defects hazardous to health or safety need to be repaired
 - b. verified medical problems of a life-threatening nature need to be alleviated
 - c. threat assessment by a law enforcement agency that a family member is in danger of attack by criminal element or subject to hate crimes in a particular property or neighborhood
 - 2. Unit is slated for modernization.
 - 3. Individuals needing an available unit that is accessible or adapted for use by handicapped or disabled.
- F. Residents will be transferred to a dwelling unit of equal size, either within a location or site or between locations or sites only to alleviate hardships as determined by the PHA.
- G. The PHA will not require a family residing in a unit too large for its needs to transfer into a smaller unit unless the Waiting List reflects a need for the occupied unit.

- H. Residents will receive one offer of a transfer. Refusal of that offer without good cause may result in Lease termination. The "good cause" standard that is applicable to new admissions will also apply to transfers.
- I. The cost of transfers to correct occupancy standards will be the responsibility of the family; all others will be the responsibility of the PHA.

XV. LEASING (24 CFR 966)

- A. It is the PHA's policy that all units must be occupied pursuant to a Lease that complies with HUD's regulations (24 CFR 966)
- B. The PHA shall utilize a Lease, incorporated into this Policy by reference.
 - 1. Does not contain unreasonable terms and conditions;
 - 2. Obligates the PHA to maintain the project in a decent, safe and sanitary condition;

 - 3) if any member of the household has been convicted of a felony.

4. Requires that the PHA may not terminate the tenancy except for serious and repeated violations of the terms or conditions of the Lease or for other good cause.
 5. At annual re-examination, the PHA may terminate the tenancy for noncompliance with the Community Service requirement.
 6. In the event of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, immediate notice to vacate can be given so that the offending member of the household can be evicted. Remaining members of the household will remain under the terms of the lease.

1. The existing Lease is to be canceled and a new Lease executed, or
 2. A Notice of Rent Adjustment is to be issued, or
 3. An appropriate rider to the Lease is to be prepared and executed by the PHA and the adult family members and made a part of the existing Lease.
- K. Cancellation of a family's Lease will be in accordance with the provisions of the Lease.
- L. The current Grievance Procedure is incorporated into the Lease by reference.

XVI. ADDITIONS TO HOUSEHOLD AND VISITORS

- A. Only those persons listed on the Lease will be permitted to occupy the unit
- B. Except for natural births to or adoptions by family members or court awarded custody, any family seeking to add a new member must request approval in writing prior to the new member occupying the unit
- C. Following receipt of a family's request for approval to add a new person to the Lease, the PHA will conduct a pre-admission screening of the proposed new member. Subject to the screening process and occupancy standards, the PHA will approve or disapprove the request.
- D. Children born to or adopted by a family member, under the age below which Juvenile Justice records are made available, or children added through a kinship care arrangement are exempt from the pre-admission screening process.

- F. Resident families who fail to notify the PHA of additions to the household or permit persons to join the household without undergoing screening are in violation of the Lease. Such persons are considered unauthorized occupants by the PHA and the entire household will be subject to eviction.

G. Visitors

1. May be permitted in a dwelling unit so long as the visitors have no previous history of behavior on PHA premises that would be a Lease violation.
2. Guests or visitors are allowed no more than fourteen (14) consecutive days within a twelve (12) month period, unless the PHA has provided prior written approval

H. Roomers or lodgers will not be permitted to occupy a unit, nor will they be permitted to move in with any family occupying a unit.

I. Family members 18 or older or emancipated minors who move from the unit to establish new households will be removed from the Lease. The resident has the responsibility to report the move-out within thirty (30) days of its occurrence.

J. Residents will not be given permission to allow ex-residents of the PHA who have been evicted to occupy the unit for any period of time.

K. Applicable income (see Section IV, Annual Income) of individuals added to the Lease will be included in Annual Income and subsequently in determining new rent.

XVII. INSPECTIONS

A. Units shall be inspected:

1. At move-in prior to occupancy: dwelling unit and premises will be inspected jointly by the applicant and PHA staff; at this time, both parties will agree on the move-in condition of the unit by signing an inspection check sheet. The original check sheet will be kept by the PHA and a copy will be given to the family.
2. Every twelve (12) months (but not less than annually) Units will be inspected annually using HUD's Uniform Physical Conditions Standards guidelines.
3. Follow-up Inspections will be scheduled within forty five (45) days if housekeeping practices or other circumstances require. The inspection will serve as a guide in the determination of needed maintenance or repairs and to assess damage over and above normal wear and tear. Failure to maintain a safe, decent and sanitary dwelling unit and premises may result in Lease termination.

4. At move-out. inspection should be done with family, unless family has previously vacated the unit and is unavailable. In the latter case, PHA staff will conduct inspection independently.
 5. Special Inspections, if deemed necessary, may be performed after proper notice.
- B. Appropriate notice to the family prior to inspections will be in accordance with the Lease.

XVIII. SECURITY DEPOSITS

A security deposit will be charged to resident families, payable prior to occupancy unless other arrangements are made, to cover the cost of property damage and/or abuse that is noted when the family vacates the unit. Amount of security deposit and provisions for refund are contained in the PHA's Security Deposit Policy, incorporated into this policy by reference.

XIX. RESIDENT ORIENTATION

Eligible applicants selected for admission will be required to participate in an orientation program conducted by the PHA to acquaint new resident families with such items as

- A. PHA policies, including Community Service Policy
- B. Lease
- C. Maintenance procedures
- D. Services provided by the PHA
- E. Grievance procedures
- F. Resident rights

- G. Responsibilities and obligations
- H. The operation of appliances and equipment in the unit
- I. The Housekeeping Policy

XX. INCOME DETERMINATION

- A. HUD regulations at 24 CFR Part 5.609 define what is and what is not counted as income for purposes of eligibility and rent determination. Definition can be found in Section IV Definitions, Annual Income and in the PHA's Income Determination Procedures.
- B. Income received by all family members must be counted UNLESS specifically excluded by the regulations.
- C. Family Composition and Impact on Income

It is the responsibility of the head of household to report changes in family composition which would affect total income and rent determination. The following outlines how income is affected by family composition.

- 1. Head, spouse or cohead and other adult family members all sources of income not specifically excluded by regulation are counted.
- 2. Full-Time students 18 years of age or older (not head, spouse or cohead)
 - employment income above $480 per year is excluded (24 CFR 5.609(c)(11))
 - all other sources of income, except those specifically excluded by the regulations are included.
- 3. Children under 18 years of age
 - all employment income is EXCLUDED (24 CFR 5.609(c)(1))
 - all other sources of income, except those specifically excluded by the regulations, are included.
- 4. Foster Children - Income from all sources is EXCLUDED (24 CFR

5.609(c)(2))

5. Live-In Aides - Income from all sources is EXCLUDED (24 CFR 5.609(c)(5))
6. Temporarily Absent Family Members - if member is approved to live in the unit, income will be counted even if family is temporarily absent. (see Section IV Definitions, for definition of temporarily absent)
7. If a family member is confined to a nursing home or hospital on a permanent basis, that person is no longer considered a family member and the income of that person is not counted. If this person is elderly or disabled and was considered the head of household for deduction purposes, the family will lose the deduction(s) (elderly/disabled head and medical/disability expense deductions) unless another family member still in the household qualifies for these deductions.
8. Dependents who are subject to a joint custody arrangement will be considered a member of the family if they live with the family 50 per cent or more of the time.
 - a. When more than one family is claiming the same dependent(s) as family members, the family with primary custody at the time of initial examination or reexamination will be able to claim the dependent(s).
 - b. If there is a dispute, the PHA will make the determination based on available documents such as court orders or an IRS return showing which family has claimed the child(ren) for income tax purposes.
9. Caretakers for a Child or Children, if neither a parent nor designated guardian remain in a household
 - a. If a responsible agency has determined that another adult is to be brought into the dwelling unit to care for a child or an indefinite period, the designated caretaker will not be considered a family member until a determination of custody or legal guardianship is made.
 - b. If a caretaker has assumed responsibility for a child without the involvement of an agency or formal assignment of custody or legal guardianship, the caretaker will be treated as a visitor for ninety (90) days. At the end of the ninety (90) days, the caretaker will be considered a family member unless information is provided that would confirm that the caretaker's role is temporary. In such a case, the PHA will extend the caretaker's eligible visitor status.

- c. At any time custody or legal guardianship is awarded to the caretaker, the caretaker will be placed on the Lease as a family member and become subject to income and deduction rules.
 - d. During any period that a caretaker is considered a visitor, the income is not counted and the caretaker is not eligible for any deductions.
- D. The PHA is required to count all income "anticipated to be received from a source outside the family during the twelve (12) month period following admission or annual reexamination effective date" based on current circumstances.
- E. HUD authorizes the PHA to use other than current circumstances to anticipate income when:
- 1. An imminent change in circumstances is expected (e.g., a pending increase in Social Security)
 - 2. It is not feasible to anticipate a level of income over a twelve (12) month period (e.g., seasonal or cyclic income)
 - 3. PHA believes that past income is the best available indicator of expected future income (24 CFR 5.609(d))
- F. the PHA will calculate income to be used for rent calculation using the HUD Guidance on Income Determination.

XXI. RENTS AND RENT ADJUSTMENTS

A. Choice of Rent

- 1. The family will have a choice of Tenant Rent which will be either an income-based rent or the flat rent. The family will not be offered this choice more than once per year.
- 2. Income-Based Rent - Income-based rent is rent that is derived from a percentage of Income. If the family selects income-based rent, Total Tenant Payment (which includes an allowance for utilities) will be the greatest of the following:

- 1) 10% of Annual Income (Gross Income)
- 2) 30% of Adjusted Annual Income
- 3) PHA's minimum rent of $50

3. Flat Rents

- a. Flat rents represent the actual market value of the PHA's housing units.
- b. The PHA will review flat rents annually and adjust as needed using the following information
 - 1) Rents of non-assisted rental units in the immediate neighborhood
 - 2) Size of PHA's units compared to non-assisted rental units from the neighborhood
 - 3) Age, type of unit and condition of PHA's units compared to non-assisted units in the neighborhood
 - 4) Land use in the surrounding neighborhood
 - 5) Amenities (such as child care, laundry facilities, playgrounds, community rooms, social services, etc) at the PHA compared to those offered by non-assisted developments in the neighborhood
 - 6) Crime in PHA's neighborhood and surrounding neighborhoods
 - 7) Quality of schools serving PHA's development(s)
 - 8) Availability of public transportation at each PHA development
 - 9) Availability of accessible units for persons with disabilities
- c. Based on the 2014 Housing Bill Flat Rent do include a utility allowance.

- d. Once a family has selected flat rent, the rent will remain constant throughout the twelve (12) months; even though the PHA may have adjusted the flat rent amounts during that period. If, at reexamination, the family chooses to remain on flat rent, the new amount will take effect.
- e. If, at any point between reexaminations, the family's income decreases, they may request to be put immediately back on income-based rent.
- f. The family may not switch back to flat rent before the next reexamination. If, before next reexamination, the family's income increases again due to a family member's finding employment and the income-based rent would exceed the flat rent amount, the family will be placed on Ceiling Rent until the next reexamination. At the next reexamination, family may be placed back on flat rent.
- g. Flat Rent - the flat rents are as regulated by HUD.

B. Ceiling Rent

- 1. Ceiling rents may not exceed 75% of operating expense for the development or the applicable flat rent for a unit.
- 2. Ceiling rents are maximum rents that will be used only in interim situations where a family is not eligible for flat rent and the income-based rent would be greater than the flat rent amount.
- 3. Ceiling rents include utility allowances.

C. Prorated Rent for Mixed Families

If a mixed family requests prorated rent, the PHA will make it available as required in 24 CFR 5.520 and compute rent according to HUD's Instructions.

D. Minimum Rent - the minimum rent is $50, which includes a utility allowance.

E. Hardship Cases

- 1. The family may apply for a waiver of the minimum rent if one of the following situations occurs

- a. The family has lost eligibility for or is awaiting federal, state or local assistance, including a family that includes a member who is a noncitizen lawfully admitted for permanent residence.
 - b. Income has decreased because of a change in circumstances, including loss of employment
 - c. A family member has died
 - d. When the family would be evicted as a result of the imposition of the minimum rent requirement
2. When the family requests a hardship waiver, the minimum rent requirement will be immediately suspended pending determination by the PHA of the family's eligibility for the suspension.
3. Family determined ineligible for hardship waiver:
- a. If it is determined by the PHA that the family does not qualify for the hardship, the minimum rent will be reinstated plus any back minimum rent owed for the period the rent was suspended.
 - b. Family may appeal the determination through the PHA's Grievance Procedure.
 - c. A family who appeals a financial hardship determination through the Grievance Procedure is exempt from any escrow deposit required.
4. Family determined eligible for hardship waiver
- a. Temporary Hardship--less than ninety (90) days
If the PHA determines that the hardship is temporary, the minimum rent will be imposed, including back payment for minimum rent from the time of suspension.
 - 1) Family will not be evicted for nonpayment of rent during the 90-day period beginning on the date of the family's request for waiver.
 - 2) The PHA will negotiate a repayment agreement with the family if necessary for any rent not paid during this period.
 - b. Long Term Hardship--ninety (90) days or more
If it is determined that the family qualifies for the long-term hardship waiver of the minimum rent, the family will report every thirty (30) days to the PHA.

F. Interim Adjustments

1. Any and all changes in family income and composition (for example, size) must be reported by Resident to PHA within ten (10) days of such change(s).
2. Rent will not be changed between admission and regularly scheduled re-examinations except for reasons and according to procedures outlined in the Lease, as follows:
 - a. It is determined that rent is based on false or incomplete information supplied by Resident
 - b. It is found that an error was made at admission or re-examination (Resident will not be charged retroactively for error made by Management)
 - c. At regular re-examination it was impossible to verify Resident's income. In this case a temporary rent is charged and Resident must report to the Management every thirty (30) days until a regular rent can be set. Such rent will be effective the date the temporary rent was set, and any overpayment will be credited to Resident's account and underpayment will become due and payable
 - d. A rent increase or decrease is necessary to comply with requirements of HUD or other requirements of law:
 - e. Tenant is required to notify PHA within 10 days of increase of income. Any amount over the $2400 per year will result in an increase in rent.

(PHA has the option of using a fixed rent system where rent is not increased between annual re-examinations even if income goes up; or an interim system where rent is increased with every income increase or with a certain PHA-determined amount of income increase, e.g. $500)

- f. Resident can show a change in circumstances (such as loss of job or emergency medical costs) or a decline in income which would justify a reduction in rent.

by Resident to the PHA.

6. Interim rent changes will become effective as follows:
 - a. Increases in rent: first day of the second month following the month which the change occurred, unless the increase is a result of false or incomplete information supplied by the family.
 - b. Decreases in rent: first day of the month following the month in which the change was reported and verified.
- G. Rent Calculation: Rents will be calculated according to HUD's Rent Calculation Guidance.

H. Rent Collections

Rents are due and payable in accordance with provisions of the Lease.

XXII. UTILITIES

- A. Family and PHA responsibilities for utilities are outlined in the Lease and in the Schedule of Utility Allowances.
- B. Each family will receive a monthly utility allowance that reflects a reasonable amount of utilities for the specific size and type of unit occupied.
- C. The PHA's Utility Allowances will be reviewed annually and adjusted as needed.
- D. When a resident makes application for utility services in his/her own name, he or she shall sign a third-party notification agreement so that the PHA will be notified if the resident fails to pay the utility bill.
- E. If an applicant is unable to get utilities connected because of a previous balance owed the utility company at a prior address, applicant will not be admitted and will receive a Notice of Denial.
- F. In PHA housing developments where the resident pays all or part of the utilities, total tenant payment minus the utility allowance may result in a negative figure. In this case, HUD regulations require that the PHA reimburse this amount (called "utility reimbursement") directly to the resident or directly to the utility company on the resident's behalf. If the PHA elects to pay the utility company directly, it will notify the resident of the amount paid.

- G. Paying the utility bill is the family's obligation under the Lease. Failure to pay utilities is grounds for Lease termination and eviction.

XXIII. OTHER CHARGES

- A. Maintenance Charges: Families will be charged for cost of service repairs due to intentional or negligent damage to the unit beyond normal wear and tear, caused by the resident, other household members or guests. Charges will be made in accordance with Schedule of Other Charges.
- B. Excess Utilities: In the case of PHA-provided utilities, residents using more than the consumption-based utility allowance will be charged for excess utility usage. This includes Flat Rent payers.
- C. Payment for such charges is due and collectible two (2) weeks after the PHA provides written notice of the charges.

XXIV. RE-EXAMINATIONS AND CONTINUED OCCUPANCY

A. Annual Re-examinations

1. The PHA will re-examine the income and family composition of all resident families at least once every twelve (12) months (coincidental with end of Lease term) to determine any changes in required unit size and rent and to re-certify the family for continued occupancy.
2. All adult members of the family will be asked to participate in the annual re-examination interview.
3. Families will be notified in writing 90 - 120 days in advance of the re-examination anniversary date so that verifications can be completed by that time.
4. The PHA's will use the HUD's Verification Requirements for obtaining verifications; however, fixed items need not be re-verified.

5. Verified information will be analyzed and a determination made with respect to:
 - a. Eligibility of the resident as a family or as the remaining member of a family;
 - b. Unit size required for the family
 - c. Rent the family should pay
 - d. Compliance with the Community Service requirement (to be reviewed at least thirty (30) days prior to the end of the 12-month Lease term)
 6. The income of a family opting to remain on flat rent need not be re-verified unless it has been three (3) years since the last verification.
 7. If there is any change in rent, a "Notice of Rent Adjustment" will be sent to the resident and this written notice will serve as an amendment to the Lease, as stipulated in the Lease.
 8. If there is any change in the size unit required, the resident will be placed on the transfer list in accordance with the transfer policy outlined in Section XIV.
- B. Special Re-examinations
1. When it is not possible to estimate projected family income with any degree of accuracy at the time of admission or regular re-examination, a temporary determination will be made with respect to income.
 2. A special re-examination will be scheduled every thirty (30) days until reasonably accurate estimate of income can be made.
 3. When third-party verification has been requested and submission deadlines have passed, the PHA will use existing information on a provisional basis. If the verification comes in after the deadline and the information differs from the amounts used in income and rent calculations, the PHA will conduct an interim reexamination to adjust the figures used for the reexamination.
 4. Residents will be notified in advance as to the date of the special re-examination(s).

C. Eligibility for Continued Occupancy

1. Residents who meet the following criteria will be eligible for continued occupancy.
 - a. Qualify as a family as defined in Section IV of this Policy. For purposes of continued occupancy, remaining family members qualify as family. Remaining family members can also include court recognized emancipated minors under the age of 18.
 - b. Are in full compliance with the resident obligations and responsibilities as described in the Lease.
 - c. family members who each have documented Social Security Numbers.
 - d. Who meet HUD requirements on citizenship and immigration status (24 CFR 5.500 - 5.528?)
 - e. Who are in compliance with the PHA's 8 hour per month community service requirement (applicable to certain adults who are neither elderly, disabled, working nor participating in qualifying educational or job training programs)
2. The PHA will not commence eviction proceedings or refuse to renew a Lease, based upon the income of the family unless it has identified, for possible rental by the family, a decent, safe and sanitary dwelling of suitable size available at a rent not exceeding thirty (30) per cent of Adjusted Income as defined in Section IV.

XXV. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

To assure that a resident family is afforded an opportunity for a hearing if the resident disputes, within a reasonable amount of time, any PHA action or failure to act, involving the resident's Lease or PHA regulations which adversely affect the individual resident's rights, duties, welfare or status, a Grievance Procedure for the PHA is incorporated into this policy by reference. Evictions resulting from criminal activity, including drug-related criminal activity on or off Housing PHA premises, are excluded from the Grievance Procedure. Also excluded are termination cases involving any activity that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents or by PHA employees UNLESS it involves domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking

XXVI. PET POLICY

Pets will be allowed in PHA housing but pet owners must abide by the provisions and requirements of the Pet Policy.

XXVII. EVICTIONS

Serious or repeated violations by a resident family of the material provisions of the Lease shall cause the PHA to begin eviction proceedings in accordance with State Law and the Lease provisions. Families are entitled to utilize provisions of the PHA's Grievance Procedure to attempt settlement of disputes with the PHA. In cases where an eviction is a result of domestic violence, only the resident causing the violence may be evicted if the victim follows the procedure below.

Under the Violence Against Women Act the PHA may request that the affected victim complete, sign and submit, within 14 business days of the request the HUD-50066 certification form. If the individual does not produce the form or the information that may be provided in lieu of the certification by the 14th business day or any extension of that date provided by the PHA, none of the protections afforded to victims of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking will apply. The PHA would therefore be free to evict in the circumstances authorized by otherwise applicable law and Lease provisions.

XXVIII. COMPLAINTS OF DISCRIMINATION

For those individuals who believe they are the subjects of discrimination, a Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity poster, containing information on filing complaints with HUD, will be conspicuously posted in the PHA office.

XXIX. CONFLICT WITH FEDERAL STATUTE, REGULATION OR HUD POLICY

This Policy is to be interpreted in accordance with federal statutes and regulations and in compliance with HUD policy and any conflict between this Policy and federal statutes and regulations will be resolved in favor of federal law and policy. *****
